MESSAGE FROM THE TRUSTEES

This is the first newsletter from the new Committee of Trustees, which was elected on 19th October 2008. Trustees have decided to include details of our finances for the first four months and relevant news about the Mandir. It is hoped that trustees will issue Newsletters quarterly.

Happy New Year. We hope you have had a good start to the New Year, and would like to thank you all for your ongoing support. Especially your support during Chopda Poojan, Ankot, Jalaram Jayanti, Hanuman Chalisa on New Year's Day, Shiv Ratri and Holi.

Jalaram Mandir is your Mandir and trustees request you all to participate in the Mandir's activities. A Mandir is there to service the spiritual needs of devotees and we intend to do just that. In the long run trustees wish to extend the Mandir as a "community centre". A list of forthcoming events are in this newsletter. We have a regular weekly highlight on Thursday Bhajans and Saturday "Hanuman Chalisa". Both events are followed by "Prasad". We are glad to state that attendances have been increasing.

On 25th December we had the Bhajans from Valjibhai Dawda of Jalaram Matru Seva Mandal. We also recited 108 "Hanuman Chalisa" on 1st January 2009. This was attended by around 400 devotees during the morning session and around 700 devotees in the evening session. On 23rd February 2009 we celebrated Shiv Ratri, which was attended by a large number of devotees. Our Holi Festival was attended by a large number of devotees.

Organising all activities including Prasad for such a high number of devotees in a small place like our Mandir is a task which needs lot of resources. We are grateful to volunteers who devote their time on a regular basis to make the events of the Mandir a success.

In the coming months, we intend to increase our regular activities. Currently we have a ladies afternoon on Mondays and Wednesdays. Resources permitting, we would like to organise Gujarati classes for our youths and English classes for the elderly. We would like to appeal to volunteers to come forward for this task.

This is YOUR MANDIR and it is up to you to attend the various functions and participate in various activities. We are here to see that the resources of the Mandir are organised for your benefit; that the finances are used for your benefit and that there is transparency in our financial matters. We will publish our finances regularly. On the final page you will find our Mission, Vision, Values and Objectives, which will guide us in our conduct. The income and expenditure figures for the first four months are on page three.
