National Lohana Singles Ball

Isn't it strange? As you grow up no one expects it's going to be so difficult to find the partner of your dreams, but then there you are still single whilst everyone around you seems to have found Mr or Mrs Right? Where did you go wrong? The answer is you didn't, it just wasn't your turn yet! But now it is - where else are you going to meet so many potential partners all looking for Mr and Mrs Right, from all around the UK? Sound Daunting? Well it needn't be - all you need to do is buy your ticket, register it as instructed, and show up on the night! (don't forget to look cute on the night!) After the welcome reception, you can enjoy a delightful meal in the company of your new found friends, followed by lots of fun, games and dancing; there is no time for boredom - just a lot of laughter and who knows you might even find Mr or Mrs Right - and to your parents delight he or she will be Lohana too! Lets face it when you have a hall full of single Lohana from up and down the country, your chances are far better than the odd telephone number you get given to call someone somebody else knows is single. And as great as friends and family are for moral support, ladies and gentleman, on the night it is a case of just you! So don't be shy if you are coming on your own, as you won't be alone - it's a case of every man and woman for themself!

Scared? Don't be... you're in safe hands... honestly!
